

Brigham Young University
J. Reuben Clark Law School
August 8, 2000

Permissions Department

Dear Copyright Officer:

As a professor in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University, I would like to include (Document Title) in the reading packet for my course on (Course Name). I am writing to ask your permission to copy this material for this purpose. The bibliographic information for this request is:

Author: (Author Name(s))

Title: (Document Title)

In: (Journal Title)

Date/Enumeration: (#)

Citation Credit: Copyright © (Citation Credit). Reprinted by permission. Further reproduction is strictly prohibited.

The material will be provided at cost to the (#) students enrolled in this course, for (Sem/Yr) and succeeding semesters is offered. May I have your permission to duplicate this material for this purpose? If so, please indicate your approval by signing below and returning this letter in the enclosed envelope (or you may fax the response to (801) 378-2188). Also, please feel free to modify the citation credit to meet your approval requirements.

If you do not solely control copyright in the requested materials, I would appreciate any information you can provide about others to whom I should write, including most recent address if it is available to you.

As the author/owner of this work, I hereby grant the permission request herein:

Cordially,

Authorized Signature:

(Your Name)

Professor, J. Reuben Clark Law School

_____
Name of authorized signatory

_____
Address

_____
Date

It is the policy of the Clark Law School to assume continuing permission for use is granted unless a limited term of permission is specified.